Junior Grandoit Tutorial #4

Christmas Card

This is a Christmas Card using fonts only created on Illustrator.

American Heart Association Newsletter

It was a team design project for the American Heart Association. We used two colors, red and black with a. US mailer attached to it to create and print a newsletter.

Magazine Spread

This is a food magazine spread. I use Photoshop to edit the pictures and made it on InDesign. At the end I transfer the pdf files into a mock-up style to show you how it will look on a print copy.

Make Your Brand More Awesome

E-Newsletter

I present this project with a the American flag to match the colors: red and white. At the end we had to add their social network to the bottom.

This was the second piece for the AHA project Newsletter design.

A redesign of a tea box that I picked from DD, with die cut and contains gradient. I used Illustrator to design the lemon. The all project was made on Illustrator.

Lexicon Book

Q is for quiver

Quiver means a tremble or shake
but also means the sheath for arrows.

I look at this word as something that keeps the arrows together; something strong, stable, and steady. This relates to my life because I am the person that holds everything together. My life, my family, my school the choices and decisions I make, I am the center of all of this. As things start to tremble or shake, I hold these pieces together like the quiver hold the arrows together.

COVER LETTER

Dear Mr Marouner

It might seem strange that I get excited thinking about colors, typography and cascading style sheets, but my passion for all aspects of graphic design has remained strong throughout the years. I am very interested in the graphic designer position that is available and hope to have the chance to interview for this exciting opportunity.

My background includes freelance graphic design experience, with a history of leading printing. I am very organized person with great attention for detail and I am able to handle a number of responsibilities at once.

I have no doubt you will find due to my credentials and references I will be a great addition to your company. Please contact me at your earliest convenience to schedule an interview. I look forward to meeting with you and thank you in advance for your consideration.

Please review my attached resume for additional details regarding my expertise and career achievements. I will follow up to request an appointment to discuss how my experience and background meets your needs.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely Yours,

Junior Grandoit
